Dear TGF Member,

This issue has been a trying one to start. Once I get going I'm sure it will flow as the others have. By the above date you see how far behind I am at this time. You may have noticed an improvement in the quality of print on some pages. However, not all material is put into my computer, still, and so does not go through my new laser printer. I am still having some compatibility problems with my latest version of PAF trying to run several copies of the program keeping up with several genealogy data bases. I may have to go to another software to solve my situation.

Material ? I need info from you if you have not sent me your line. I was checking through files and have many still, who have not given me even their Gooch connection.

Good news for some of you. I am on the WEB now. I plan to have a Home Page but that will come later when I become comfortable with what I am doing.

For now I open for suggestions and help from anyone who knows more than I do now.

I have two sons I call on from time to time. My oldest son will be helping me establish the Home Page when I am ready. I have to decide if I have time to keep it going. That may be the hitch.

My WEB address is: <http://www.mylink.net/~cdan>

My e-mail ----- is: cdan@mylink.net

If you are on line, please let me hear from you and what you are doing. Several of you have mentioned you are on this or that, but I have not kept a record. So tell me again, if you told me earlier. If you drop me a hi on e-mail then I will have your address. So please do that. I have already communicated with two of you since Thanksgiving. Its Great!!!!!!

Here are some sources I have find that look like will be helpful.

Atlanta, Georgia

She is the daughter of
Rev. John Higgerson Gooch
and Isabella Cornelius Gooch

Dear Miss Gooch

I have just received your letter and I am sending you the information I have which was written out by my father's sister sometime ago. This is all the record I have of my immediate family. I do hope some connection here will allow me and my boys to be in the Gooch Book, and if the book will be for sale I would like to buy two copies.

Hoping to hear from you again soon, I am

Sincerely yours,

Nelle Gooch Travelstead

History of the Gooch Family

1850

see Census

William S. Gooch and his wife, Ailcy Jones Gooch, came by oxteam from Granville Co., North Carolina, to Tennessee. Wm. S. Gooch was a primitive preacher of the Disciples of Christ, in rural Tenn. (He died while away on a preaching tour) This couple had 16 children born to them, many of whom died in infancy.

Among their children who survived were Patrick Henry, Rowland, Alexander, Barton W., Benjamin Ned, Lucy, Mary, and Homer. Patrick Henry Gooch was born in Williamson Co., Tennessee. (near Franklin)

At the outbreak of the Civil War Rowland and P.H. Gooch moved to Missouri, at or near Farmington, where they engaged in the Mercantile business -- also operated a stage coach as a side line.

Soon after moving to Missouri, P.H. Gooch married Sarah Joanna Roundtree. Their three children were Mary Josophine, William Junius, and Sarah Joanna. The young wife died in the early '60's, leaving these three small children--Joanna being almost an infant.

Mr. Gooch became acquainted with a young widow, Mrs. Joyce Powell West, living near him in Missouri and married her later in her old home in Kentucky.

Her history follows---

Joyce Powell was born in Simpson Co., Ky. in Oct. (13th), 1830-- the daughter of Enoch and Martha Denning Powell. Her mother was reared in Simpson Co., but her father came from a section known as the Kentucky Purchase and settled in Simpson Co. Evidence points to the Powell family originally coming from Wales. The name "Joyce" is unusual and occurs in Welsh literature. Joyce Powell often heard her father refer to his sister, Joyce, for whom she was named.

Joyce Powell married Mr. William West when she was 19 yrs. of age, and they spent their early married life in the home of his mother, not far from her own home. Three children were born to them--a boy who lived only a few hours; a daughter, Susan; and another daughter, Martha Mourning. The name "Martha" was for Joyce West's own mother, Martha Powell, and "Mourning" was for her husband's mother, Mourning West. This little girl, when very young, died of croup.

The young couple with their little girl, Susie, moved to Missouri about 1859 or '60. They took their household goods and slaves with them, going to Nashville and there taking a steamboat on the Cumberland River. They landed at Cape Girardeau, Mo., and later settled near Farmington. At the outbreak of the Civil War Mr. West immediately enlisted in the Confederate Army. He did not live long but died of disease, and the news of his death was brought to his young wife by a comrade in arms. She often related to her children how this news was brought to her at night-fall by this friend who came on horse-back.

She and her little daughter were shielded and comforted by Confederate friends, among them the Edwards and Donthit families as well as the Hales and others. As time went on, difficulties arose. The slaves were given their freedom, and became very idle and rebellious. A meeting took place between her and Mr. P.H. Gooch, whose history is given above.

She was lonely and far from home, and he was greatly in need of a wife and mother for his three children. His sister, Mary, had come from Tenn. and was looking after his children. His proposal of marriage was accepted but, true to the tradition of de corum, the bride must always be given in marriage in her own home. So Joyce West and little daughter returned to Ky., being met in Louisville by

Mr. P.H.Gooch soon followed her to Simpson Co., Ky., and they were married in Grandfather Powell's home, by a Baptist preacher named Kidd.

They soon returned to Missouri where they lived at Farmington and later --at Kirkwood--near St. Louis. Mr. Gooch had a good mercantile business there, but circumstances arose which made it seem best for them to return to Ky. An old letter records that he and "little Susie" enjoyed a nice walk together, and in later years she said she remembered having a little sick spell, and that "Pa" was very kind to her. She said that this kindness drew her to him and overcame any feeling of resentment towards a new step-father.

The family, on returning to Ky., went first to the home of Grand-father Powell--near Franklin. Here their first child was born--Lydia Ann, afterwards affectionately called "Lannie." While she was still very young, the family moved to a farm nearby, known as the "Bee Pond", from the fact that many bees hovered around a pond on the place. Here their second child was born--a girl named "Eddie". She was named for Dr. James Edward Neely who officiated at her birth and showed much kindness to the family during this troubled time after the Civil War. After getting the family reasonably well settled, the father, Mr. Gooch, secured a position in a large store in Nashville--the owner being named Hershberger. He came home to see the family at intervals, coming by train from Nashville and then by horse-back out to the home. There were only dirt roads, and these were almost impossible in winter. When little Eddie was 3 yrs. old, the family moved to Franklin and occupied a house on Cedar St. owned by Mr. John Dinning--an uncle of Mrs. Gooch. At the present time (1947) this house is owned and occupied by Mrs. Jess Harris. Mr. Gooch went into the mercantile business with Mr. George Patterson and before long built a brick house diagonally across the street from the house in which they were living. In 1873, a severe epidemic of cholera swept that part of the country. Many people died and sickness invaded nearly every house, including that of the Gooch family. In addition to this calamity a financial panic swept the whole United States. Due to these calamities Mr. Gooch sold the home, and the family again returned to Uncle John Dinning's house where they lived until 1876 when they moved to Louisville. The oldest daughter, Susie, in the meantime had married Mr. Thomas Austin Meguiar, and they were living in Louisville. Her desire to improve the family future and to give the younger children better educational advantages was the chief cause of this move. The brick home was sold to Dr. O.P. Summers who came to Franklin from Barren Co. The two families became close friends and so remained for many years. That home has been in possession of the Summers family ever since, and is now occupied by the family of Dr. Summers' great-granddaughter, Rebecca Tarpoy.

A new era opened for the Gooch family in Louisville--and 10 yrs. went by very happily--with splendid opportunities in both church and school life, and many fine friendships were formed. In 1887, a great boom took place in the West which attracted many Ky. people--Mr. G. among others. So great was the lure, that Mr. Gooch sold out his business and home; and he, his wife, and 2 unmarried daughters (Lannie and Eddie) moved to Wichita, Kansas. Unfortunately they arrived too late to reap any financial advantages from the boom, for it soon collapsed and the family returned to the old home town, Franklin. It was now necessary to secure another home, and one was available almost immediately. An old couple, Mr. and Mrs. Tolbert Blankenship, wished to sell their home and return to spend their remaining days with relatives in Tenn. The sale was completed, and Mr. and Mrs. Gooch and their daughter Lannie took possession. The house was located on what was then called Depot St., later --Ky. Ave. The other daughter, Eddie, remained in Wichita till the term of school she was teaching ended. This very comfortable home had a large yard and garden, and it was always a very happy gathering-place for the children and grandchildren. This old home was the scene of a rather unusual event, when the two daughters, Lannie and Eddie, were married on Nov. 21st, 1888. However, the actual ceremony was performed in the Christian Church there in Franklin. It was a double wedding and Rev. E.G. Sewell of Nashville performed the ceremony. He had been a close friend of the family for years and had been with them in times of both sorrow and joy. A wedding supper was served in the home to immediate members of the family and the ushers. Lannie married Mr. O.M. McClanahan, and they made their home with the father and mother for a number of years. Their three children (Susie West, Henry Holland, and Blanche) were born there. The younger daughter, Eddie, married Mr. L.G. Whittier--a newspaper man from Wichita, Kansas. She lived in that city till the death of her husband in 1933 when she returned to Ky. to live with her sister and her family.

While the Gooch family was living in Louisville, William J., Joanna, and Mary were all married from the family home by a Christian preacher. William J. married Miss Benona Coleman. Mary married Mr. Josse Tem' ple, and Joanna married Mr. Thomas Byors.

A slight history of their descendants follows--
Mr. and Mrs. W.J.Gooch had 1 daughter, Nelle, who married Mr. Conley Travelstoad. Her 2 sons, Will Gooch and Chester, are married and now have families of their own. Will Gooch is in business in Baltimore and Chester is connected with the U. of Ky. in Lexington. Mary's husband died, and she married Mr. Dan Beasley of Dixon, Tenn. He was a widower and had 3 little girls whom Mary reared very carefully. All 3 are married and live in Tenn.--the oldest one in Nashville, and the other 2 in Dixon. Joanna and husband had 1 little boy, Shirley who died in infancy and was buried in Cave Hill Cemetery in Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. McClanahan's 3 children are all established in different professions--the oldest, Susie West, has been connected with Western State College in Bowling Green for years; at present (1948) is working in the College Library. Henry McClanahan lives in Miami, Fla. and is district manager for the J.B.Ford Chemical Co. in Detroit. He has one son, Paul Henry.

Blancho Denning's son, Earl Morrow, died at the age of 12 yrs. His daughter--now Mrs. John J. Duncan--lives in New York City.

The oldest daughter in the Gooch family had 3 daughters--all living--Mrs. Hugh McLellan in Winchester, Ky.; Mrs. Pryor Beard of Shelbyville, Ky.; and Miss Elizabeth Meguiar who is connected with the Univ. of Kansas in Lawrence.

Although the Gooch family had 3 sets of children, a most affectionate relationship had always existed among the various members. This, no doubt, is largely due to the influence of their parents--Mr. and Mrs. P.H.Gooch--who, by example and precept, taught them to fear God and keep his commandments and to love one another.

Query V4.019

GOOCH, Charles Victor
GOOCH, James
GOOCH, Charles Dickens
GOOCH, Ida
GOOCH, Dorotha
GOOCH, Patrick
GOOCH, Michael
GOOCH, Elissa Mounier
PARSONS, Gordon
PARSONS, Donald

I grew up not knowing much about my father and that side of my family heritage. I now know a bit more but still need help. My father Charles Victor GOOCH, b. St. Louis MO, 21 Aug. 1913. He had a brother James who was two years older, b. in IL. I don't know where in Ill, but when they were young they lived in Paris IL. Their father(my grandfather) was Charles D. GOOCH (later learned the D. to be "Dickens") was b. in 1881-82, MO or IL. My father, I have learned, had a first wife in either MO or IL named Dorotha who had two sons, Patrick and Michael. They would be my half-brothers, and if living would be in their early 50's since I am 45. When my father died in 1976 he was living in Costa Mesa CA and I learned that he had a third wife, Elissa Mounier GOOCH of Costa Mesa and two sons of her own, Gordon and Donald PARSONS, who would be my father's stepsons. With this and query V4.018, could anyone help me with more details of my family and possibly find ones who are still living.
